NOT A LONG HAIR!

"Where did Gibson get the sideburns?"

He had a right to wonder. For Maj. Gibson wears short hair and short sideburns. Yet, the picture gave him almost a mutton-chop look.

I had not noticed it until Col. Willis mentioned the sideburns. But when we gave the picture a closer look we saw where ink had been placed on that exact spot by a finger print. We are sorry to have given the major a non-military look.

WE APPRECIATE VETERANS

I had a letter the other day which stirred a little resentment at first. Then I read deeper and decided the writer had a point of a sort.

The main thrust of the letter was criticism of the Anvil Herald's apparent lack of feeling and support for veterans returning from Vietnam. And it used some current coverage of other people to show us where the writer believes we are wrong.

The letter was unsigned and I was glad it was. For that way I did not have to make a choice of "to print or not to print."

Not because it was critical of us, but because it used local events and persons to try to say we fail to give enough attention to those men fighting and dying in Vietnam.

The writer must have been a stranger, because I don't believe Anvil Herald readers could fail to know how I feel about servicemen deserving the utmost pride from us all.

To me Vietnam veterans deserve the same treatment from America as all veterans of previous wars have received. They are heroes.

Oh, I know that right now to even breathe that the Vietnam War is justified is near hearsy. But in 20 to 30 years from now someone who picks up this paper and reads these words will tell you that Vietnam was very necessary.

I am not crying wolf. Nor do I like wars. But nothing the Communists have done, such as the Chinese opening wide their arms for a bunch of long-haired ping-pong players and inviting President Nixon for talks, has convinced me they have changed their avowed intentions of conquering the world.

I know this sounds unusual coming from a moderate liberal. But I feel strongly that there are Communists in China, Russia, North Vietnam and yes, even the United States who are gloating over the mockery that is being made over what I consider a valiant effort to preserve freedom around the world.

Now, Mr. Writer, whoever you are, I certainly hope that gives you an idea of how I feel on the questions you raise. And for your information, the Anvil Herald will continue to give ample publicity to those individuals who deserve it through their accomplishments.

WORTH HEARING ABOUT

Paul Riley has been busy circulating a petition which will hit the desk of Gov. Preston Smith and get results. Or that is what Paul and the people who are working with him hope.

The petition asks that Governor Smith to permit House Bill 1292 to be brought up in the Special Session of the Legislature which he will call.

Brings in new element

Pitre files suit
in district court

Although it came as no surprise, the announcement in the Tuesday San Antonio Express that former Hondo Police Chief Joe Pitre had filed a district court suit against the Hondo City Council and Sheriff Charles J. Hitzfelder did reach the defendants in an unexpected way.

They all contend that the story in the paper was the first indication that such charges were being filed.

According to the Express story under the byline of Wilson McKinney, "Pitre seeks reinstatement without loss of pay, damages of $100,000 and a judgment declaring unconstitutional the 'customs and procedures' used by the City of Hondo to dismiss employees."

The surprise element in the entire episode was Pitre's charge, according to the Express, "that Hondo and Medina County officials had him fired to prevent his giving Mexican-American citizens of Hondo 'equal protection of the laws'."

This is the first time this element or thought has been brought into the events surrounding Pitre's dismissal.

The Express story continues:

"The suit alleges that Mexican-Americans in Hondo, comprising 55 percent of the population, had been subjected to a 'systematic program of harassment and intimidation' which Pitre blamed on Sheriff Hitzfelder.

"Hitzfelder, the suit charges, 'has controlled through his influence as sheriff the political climate in the City of Hondo and the County of Medina for several years.

"The suit says Pitre hired a Mexican-American resident of Hondo, Danny Cortez, as a patrolman in January 1970, and 'began a program to assure that Mexican-American citizens in Hondo enjoyed the privileges and immunities guaranteed by law'.

"Pitre contends he has never been formally told the reasons for his demotion and discharge except for a statement to the press by Mayor George Brucks and Chief Jerry Williamson announcing he was fired because of 'negligence' in line of duty, failure to comply with direct orders and for theft by bailee (the charge that he converted a city-owned .30 caliber rifle to his own use, which a grand jury nobilled him on).

"Named defendants in the suit are Hitzfelder, Hondo Mayor George L. Brucks; City Councilmen Andrew Patterson, Albert Vance (no longer on the council), Ralph Hauger, Hilmer Mueller, G. E. Pedrosa; City Manager Fritz J. Leinweber and present Chief of Police Jerry Williamson."

When contacted Tuesday concerning the suit, Mayor Brucks said "the first I knew about it was when I read it in the paper. I have no comment."

City Councilmen contacted said "no comment at this time."

Sheriff Hitzfelder said that he heard it first through the newspaper story and that any comment would be through his attorney, Fred Semaan of San Antonio.

City Attorney Hugh Meyer will probably handle the case for the city.

Devine
edges
All Stars

The Devine Senior Little League All-Stars posted a 5-4 win over the Hondo All-Stars Monday night at Devine in the opening game of their best two-out-of-three series.

Devine scored the winning run with two out in the bottom of the seventh inning. Noel Pompa drove a two-strike pitch to right field scoring Robert Kaninski with the winning run.

Hondo had led all the way until the seventh. Hondo scored two runs in the second on a double by Alex Mendoza and two Devine errors. They added single runs in the third and fifth before Devine won the game in the seventh.

Simon Arcos, Jr., Gene McAnelly, and Alex Mendoza each had two hits for Hondo, while Hal Thompson and Noel Pompa each had two hits for Devine. Winning pitcher was Wayne Gan, while Douglas Helvey took the loss.

Hondo reached the playoffs with Devine by defeating Nueces Canyon in two tilts by lopsided scores.

Vaccine now available

Horses can move
to veterinarians

A change in the restrictions on movement of horses now allows owners to take them anywhere in the state to receive vaccinations against Venezuelan Equine Encephalomyelitis (VEE), County Agent Glenn Bragg announced Tuesday.

"Thus, Medina County horse owners can get in touch with their local veterinarian and take the horses to him for vaccination," Bragg said. "And we are assured that we will have plenty vaccine in the next few days."

Bragg said that as of this week some 1,370 horses have been vaccinated in the county. "This is less than half of the estimated 3,000 horses in the county," he said. "And we urge all owners to have their horses vaccinated against this disease."

To help clarify some of the questions raised by the disease and the vaccinations to combat it, Bragg has released the following questions and answers sent to him by the Texas Animal Health Commission.

Will the vaccine currently used in the U.S. to protect against VEE and EEE protect against VEE?

No, these three diseases are caused by immunologically different viruses so that a separate vaccine must be used for each disease.

Is there a safe and effective vaccine available against VEE?

Yes, there is a safe and effective vaccine available in Texas which will protect against this disease providing horses are vaccinated at least ten days before exposure to the virus. This is an experimental attenuated virus vaccine developed by the U.S. Army for human use, but it has been used with excellent success in some two million horses of South and Central America. As soon as current tests are completed, it is expected that it will no longer need to be classified as experimental.

Since this is a live virus vaccine, do horses show any adverse reactions from it?

Reports on the reactions following the vaccination of some 14,000 horses in southern Texas have shown less than 2% to have mild reactions.

Jury

dictated

Selection of juries in Medina County in the future will be done through the use of a jury wheel, according to County Judge Jerome Decker.

"The new law passed by the Texas Legislature outlines the use of the jury wheel and directs each county over 10,000 population to make use of it," Judge Decker said.

Cards bearing the name and address of each registered voter are in the process of being typed, the Judge said. "We have more than 8,000 registered voters in Medina County," he said. "So this will be quite a job. But once they are typed, and the deadline is August 15, they will be placed in jury wheels and when a jury is selected the wheels will be turned and a card withdrawn. This will continue until the entire venire is drawn."

Judge Decker also pointed out that the names of ALL registered voters will be used. "This includes 18-year-olds, as well as senior citizens," he said. "And when their name is drawn a person has to appear at the Courthouse before the judge at the specified time."

NEW STREET SIGNS UP

Have you noticed the brand new blue and white street signs going up in Hondo?

The City is now in a program to place new signs all over town.

New Immunization Law Slated for Local Schools

All students, ranging from kindergarten to college, must have certain immunizations by this coming school year, according to a new state law. These include:

- 1) Polio--three doses with the last dose taken since age four.
- 2) Diphtheria and Tetanus (DTP or Td)--three doses with the last dose since age four through grades five, or with the last dose through the past 10 years for grades six and above.
- 3) Measles--one dose of vaccine or the illness through age 12.
- 4) Rubella (3-day or German measles)--one dose of vaccine through age 12.
- 5) Smallpox--one dose with the last dose within the past 10 years.

If the number of doses required have been received, but the last dose was before the time stated, then an additional dose of polio, diphtheria-tetanus, or smallpox vaccine is required.

All immunizations should be completed by the time school is entered. However, if this is not possible, all students will be allowed to enter their respective school systems during the summer and fall 1971 terms, with the provision that their immunizations against at least one of the aforementioned diseases will have been started by January 1, 1972, and all completed as soon as medically feasible.

Since many types of personal immunization records are in current use, any document listing each immunization received by year will be acceptable during the 1971-72 school year for either initiating or updating school immunization records.

Signature or rubber-stamp validation of personal records by physicians or public health clinics is recommended but not required until the Summer 1972 Semester, after which validation of new records is required.

A new, standard Certificate of Immunization form is being developed; however, compatible documents will always be acceptable.

If there are questions, contact the family physician or local health department.

"Aw right, so I ain't much of a bronc rider, but I'm still a heck of a good wind mill greaser!"

Funeral services for George W. Ilse held

Rev. Fr. Henry V. Hug

Concelebrated funeral mass for Rev. Father Henry V. Hug was offered in St. Joseph's Church, Las Gallinas, Texas, on July 1, 1971.

Principal Celebrant was Msgr. Albert Maneth; concelebrants and pallbearers included Msgrs. Harold Ehling, Bernard Popp, Henry S. Herbst, Anthony Drozd and Fathers Henry Folf and William F. Halata.

Father Hug was born Feb. 19, 1906 in Las Gallinas, the son of Louis and Helen Hug. He was ordained to the priesthood April 4, 1932. For a time he traveled as a missionary. He served in the following parishes during his priesthood, St. Patrick's in San Antonio; St. Joseph's in Yoakum and St. Agnes in San Antonio.

In February of 1948 he was named pastor of Holy Cross Church, D'Hanis, where he served until Jan. 12, 1955. Fr. Henry also served parishes in Fredericksburg, Ganado, El Campo, Sacred Heart in San Antonio and Honey Creek. At the time of his death, on June 28, 1971, he was serving as Chaplain for the Retired Sisters of Charity of the Incarnate Word at St. Joseph's Convent, San Antonio.

He served as a professor at St. John's Seminary 1933-38. In June 1943 he became pastor at St. Agnes in San Antonio. It was here he received the title of "Pistol-Packin' Padre".

The January 1947 issue of the Catholic Digest published an article entitled "Pistol-Packin' Padre". In it he was described as having the build of an athlete, eyes that could freeze up like a Texas North-er, and a handshake that seemed to be made for the grip of a revolver. Due to his influence on the juveniles in stopping crime he was sworn in as an officer of the law.

Anyone that ever had the experience of a handshake with Fr. Heinie (as he referred to himself) knows that the handshake was more than that. It was the sincerity with which it was given that made you realize it came all the way from the heart. His hands and heart were always ready to help those in need of help. His sermons and instructions will be remembered by many throughout the years to come.

Survivors include four sisters, Mrs. Philomena Lamn Sister Mary Benedicta, OSB, Sister Mary Mildred, OSB, all of San Antonio, and Miss Josephine Hug and a brother, Joseph L. Hug of Las Gallinas. Interment was in St. Joseph's Cemetery, Las Gallinas.

She was a member of the Happy Valley Needle Club of which she was very active as long as her health permitted her to attend. She was Baptist and had served as a Sunday school teacher in her younger days.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon, July 15, at the First Baptist Church in Devine where she was a member. Rev. Bill Kinney, pastor, officiated.

BITS AND PIECES

Sis McDade wrote us an excellent article from Pennsylvania and mentioned it in her column last week. But sure enough she was correct in saying "space permitting . . ." for we did not get it in. It's here some-where this week, so join me in "taking a walk with Sis" . . . MRS. OSWALD SAUER, newly-elected secretary of the Museum tells me in a note from LaCoste that signs advertising the Museum will be placed at each entrance to Hondo, and that Nightwatchman Bendele has been retained to check on the Museum throughout the night . . . a note left on my desk by someone (I suspect Sis McDade) speaks so aptly, "Misery is when you have an ice cream cone and a balloon and a terrible itch all at the same time" . . . employees of Medina Electric Cooperative have a brand new employee newsletter edited by LARRY OEFINGER. Someone selected the name "The MEC Informer" for the title. JOE LANGFORD created this one; and some of the others submitted weren't too bad either. They included: The Generation Gap, JESSE HUTTO; The Lightbulb, CRAIG McLERRAN; Watt-Not News, JOHN WENTZ; The Short Circuit, BLANTON TAYLOR; Willie's Wire-gram, BILL SPIKES; and Medina Employee Communicator, BUD GWARTNEY. No matter the name, it's a nice communications piece for company employees . . . Hondo citizens who would like to view textbooks being considered for state adoption in 1972-73 may do so by writing the Education Service Center Region XX in San Antonio.

STOP ACCIDENTAL POISONING!

Thousands of children are victims of poisoning each year—often the result of a parent's mistake. Help make your family accident-resistant with these simple rules.

1 Do Not over-medicate—read the label and follow directions carefully.
2 Do Not reach for medicine in the dark—it may be the wrong medication, or a toxic substance not intended for internal use.
3 Always be POSITIVE what you are giving your child in regard to medicine bought without a prescription.

In the race

Young people plan invasion of Hondo

An invasion of Hondo by young people is slated for Saturday, July 24, but is unlikely that the population will get upset about their actions.

Young Texans to support Dolph Briscoe

UVALDE--Young Texans for Dolph Briscoe, a statewide organization formed to aid the 1972 gubernatorial campaign of the Uvalde rancher-banker-businessman, will host a planning and promotion convention here July 23-24.

According to a release from the Briscoe booster's main office, approximately 150 delegates from throughout the State will gather to meet with Briscoe to discuss ways in aiding young people in becoming better informed voters and active participants in State politics.

Headliner among those expected to be present for the convention is Brenda Box, reigning Miss Texas from Amarillo. A number of other celebrities are expected to be present.

Persons wishing to help in the Briscoe campaign should write Young Texans for Dolph Briscoe, Box 630, Uvalde, Texas 78801.

Classes in the Bible mission stores will be featured in the two schools with Weatherford young people doing the teaching.

In the evenings the youths from Weatherford will join with young people from Hondo at the First Baptist Church for Teen Times. Each evening from 7-9:30 they all will enjoy Bible Study Fellowship, refreshments and singing.

Climaxing the week will be a patriotic musical program scheduled for 8 p.m. Friday, July 30. The public is invited to this presentation, Rev. Reid said.

More about . . .

How soon will horses be protected after vaccination?

Significant protection will have developed after 7 to 10 days. Horses are known to be fully protected after 14 days.

Is it safe to vaccinate pregnant mares?

The vaccination of pregnant mares is not without some risk to the foal; but we know that if the mare becomes infected with the natural disease, there is a 30 to 50% chance that both she and her foal will be lost. So that both the mare and the foal in an infected area are relatively safer with the vaccine than without it. Many pregnant mares have been vaccinated with no ill effects to the mare or foal.

Is it safe to vaccinate foals?

Foals as young as three weeks of age have been vaccinated with no ill effects.

What can the horse owner do to protect his horses until the vaccine becomes available in his area?

1) Each horse owner should keep his horses at home to avoid contact with other horses and stop horse movement.

2) He should spray his horses and premises with a mosquito repellent to protect his horses from being bitten.

3) He should notify his local veterinarian of the need to have his horses vaccinated as soon as the vaccine becomes available to his veterinarian.

When will the vaccine become available?

Vaccine has been provided for statewide use in Texas on 14 July 1971. State and Federal authorities have indicated that the vaccine will be made available throughout the state as soon as possible starting with the southern counties which are at greatest risk.

We understand that vaccine distribution centers will be established throughout the state as soon as possible from which local veterinarians will be supplied. The State Animal Health Commission will notify veterinarians as vaccine becomes available for each area of the state.

Is the vaccine available to horse owners or only to veterinarians?

The vaccine will only be available to accredited veterinarians for several reasons.

It is still an experimental vaccine which requires that it be administered by a veterinarian who can determine the condition of the horse before and after use. The vaccine must be used promptly after reconstitution and kept cold as well as administered in an aseptic manner with fresh sterile equipment for every horse. Official records must be maintained by the veterinarian who also must get a release signed by the owner.

How is VEE transmitted?

Transmission occurs primarily through the bite of infected mosquitoes. Essentially all types of mosquitoes and some biting flies are capable of transmitting the disease. Although infrequent, transmission can also occur from contact with fluids from infected horses at the height of temperature when the concentration of virus is usually highest.

Carye McGarity will direct the activities of the PUB for the coming year after being elected president at the recent meeting.

Other officers elected to help the president in her duties include: Mark Heath, vice-president; Kevin Tilley, secretary-treasurer; and Mike Christopher, advertiser and reporter.

"We have decided that the PUB needs many constructive changes," Christopher said in his release. "The TV room already is in the process of being painted, and other rooms need painting also. But first we need funds. Those who wish to help this town have a better recreation center, please contact any of the officers by phone or letter."

The first project to be sponsored by the PUB will be a dance on July 30. Dancing will be to the music of The Chayns from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m. Admission will be $1.25 for members and $1.50 for non-members.

Parents Know the Drug Threat

The child you save may be your own!

By

Jerry Williamson

Hondo

Chief of Police

Today's Subject: Summary

Most of our discussions have been on the prevention through knowledge approach to the drug problem, but here I want to state things to watch for that might indicate a person is already using some type of drugs. Ten frequent signs of drug abuse are:

1. Moral ill health. Normal value changes and unusual ideas taking their place.
2. Mental ill health. Emotional extremes with a marked loss of interest in usual goals. Unusually bad grades in school, signs of a change in personality.
3. Physical ill health. Loss of weight, changes in skin color, loss of body tone, unnatural careless stance and posture.
4. Development of a fear complex. Usually convinced that someone is "after them." Suspicious about everyone around them, even family members.
5. Marked appetite extremes. No appetite at all and when this changes and they do eat, the amounts of food intake are huge, particularly in the line of sweets and liquids.
6. Extremes in disposition. Either highly stimulated and overly talkative or very sleepy.
7. Extremes in emotions. Frequent spells of crying or hysterical laughter. Very frequently showing feelings against any authority.
8. Needle marks, skin boils, sores. Scars from use of needles many times become very infected.
9. Body and breath odor very unpleasant.
10. Eyes usually very bloodshot and watery. Pupils very small, eyes often wide.

If you suspect a child is taking some form of drugs, it is probably best, for the first step, to consult your family doctor. He is very well qualified to confirm your judgment.

Here are some of the street terms you want to listen for now that you know they are definitely connected with drug use. These listed below are common to the drug scene:

MAINLINE: Using drugs by means of intravenous injection
OD: Overdose usually deadly
OUTFIT: Equipment for giving injections
PEACE PILL: A tranquilizer most usually given by Veterinarians, sometimes called a "Hog"
PUSHER: A seller of drugs
SPACED: Inability to concentrate, mentally adrift
STONED: High on drugs
TRIP: High on hallucinogens
TURNED ON: To be given drugs, to be happy or high TURNED OFF: To quit the use of drugs entirely
BAG: A user's favorite drug
BIG C: Cocaine

BLASTED: Under the influence of some drug
BUSTED: Arrested
BURNED: Cheated on a drug purchase
CAP: A capsule containing a drug
COLD TURKEY: An abrupt stop in use of drugs in an effort to quit
FIX: An injection of drugs
GIVE WINGS: Give first injection of Heroin to a friend
HIGH: Under the influence of some drug
HIT: One puff on a Marijuana cigarette
HOOKED: Dependent on drugs
TURN ON: To start a friend on drugs
JUNKIE: A Heroin addict sometimes called "Hype"

All things considered, it is not the responsibility of any one group of people, government agencies, doctors, law enforcement people, ministers, parents—to minimize the drug threat this country faces today—it is the responsibility of all of us!

Arrangements for the two-faith wedding were handled by Father Thomas Reardon of St. Elizabeth's Parish for the Catholic diocese of Kansas City and by Dr. Frank Northfleet, pastor of Welborn Avenue Baptist Church in Kansas City. Dr. Northfleet officiated at the double-ring ceremony which was held in the bride's home. Mrs. Esther Crain, a long-time friend of the bride's family, played traditional organ music for the wedding.

The bride was escorted by her father and was given in marriage by her parents. The bride wore a long gown of white silk of understated simplicity. The dress was designed with an empire waistline, accented by braided silk which fell in long loops at the back. Her tulle veil was attached to a Juliet cap covered with seed pearls. She carried a cascade of mixed summer flowers as she came down the staircase for the ceremony. Her gold wedding band was an heirloom; her great-grandmother's ring which had been handed down to her.

Mrs. Rodney Hawkins of Grand View, Mo., attended her sister as matron of honor. Her empire-waisted gown was of apricot chiffon and she carried a nosegay of summer flowers. John V. Gilhooly of Dallas, brother-in-law of the groom, served as best man.

Misses Shelley Ney of D' Hanis and Lucy Poerner of Hondo, nieces of the groom, were junior bridesmaids. The girls wore daisy printed lawn dresses; Shelley was in lemon yellow and Lucy in apple green with matching hair ribbons. They carried heribbored long-stemmed carnations.

A reception honoring the bridal couple was held immediately following the ceremony at the bride's home. Fruit punch and wedding cake were served to the 35 wedding guests. The bride's table was centered with a bouquet of garden flowers. Similar bouquets were used throughout the home.

The bride, a graduate of Idaho State University with a B.S. in nursing, is currently serving as a nurse with the United States Air Force. The groom, a graduate of the business school at St. Mary's University in San Antonio, is a statistician with the Civil Service at Kelly AFB in San Antonio.

Pair united

Miss Mary Margaret Schott and Daniel Wayne Nelson were united in marriage in a double-ring ceremony Saturday, June 12, in St. Louis Catholic Church, Castroville.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Schott of Dunlay and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schneider of San Antonio.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a traditional gown of white lace over slipper satin with long lace sleeves, stand-up collar, and lace trimmed front panel.

A headpiece of lace rose petals held her fingertip veil of bridal illusion appliqued with roses. Her golden locket was an heirloom of her paternal grandmother. She carried a cascade of yellow roses.

Miss Wanda Schott was the sister's maid of honor. Robert Wall served his brother-in-law as best man.

Bridesmaids were Misses Beverly Schott, sister of the bride; Patsy Masters and Gwen Bippert and Mrs. Robert Wall, sister of the groom.

The bridesmaids and flower girl wore floor-length gowns of yellow slipper satin with headpieces of matching yellow bows and tulle. Each carried a nosegay of mixed flowers.

Groomsmen were William Brieden, David Schneider of California, O. D. Johnson of San Antonio and Doyle West of San Marcos. Ushers were G. A. Masters and Junior Stroud.

Flower girl was little Miss Terri Tarvin, cousin of the bride. Robbi Wall, nephew of the groom, was ringbearer. Miss Denise Etter was organist.

A supper and dance followed at Koenig Park. Miss Brenda Masters attended the bride's book. Miss Shirley Wurzbach, Mrs. Lucky Lawrence and Mrs. William Brieden served.

The newlyweds are making their home in Castroville.

family and the Frank Hemmies. At Port Neches they visited Mr. Lutz's sister and her family, the James Morgans. Fishing was enjoyed in Sabine Pass.

Miss Elaine Huser returned to Austin after spending the week with her parents, the Lawrence Husers.

Mrs. Ethel Boog and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Nobles and their daughter, Cynthia, and son, Jeff, spent Saturday and Sunday at the L. J. Carle ranch.

Here in Hondo

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph DeMontel have returned from a buying trip to the Dallas Furniture Market. DeMontel reports the trend is to lighter colors in upholstery, in man-made fabrics that are durable and stain-resistant, and to modern designing in style and detail.

'Join me in a walk' says our Sis McDade

LANCASTER, PA. -- July 8

Daylight in this part of God's country comes mighty early and lasts for almost 16 hours just now. Now that I could stay in bed for as late as I chose, I no longer choose to do so. Time's a wasting!

In deference to other sleepers whose alarm clocks are set to a different time schedule, and in order not to set the neighbors to wondering what that restless-footed woman is doing out at this hour of the day, I waited this morning until 6:30 to start out, in the cool, cool, cool of a bright day that gave promise of new delights.

The outdoor world is so full of a number of things that I found myself much happier than the traditional kings are supposed to be, however uneasy lie their heads at crown-wearing time.

My own "crown" was a broad-brimmed Mexico-made sombrero (about 50 cents a long the border) for which I had paid $3 here in compensation for its few flowery decorations--probably Yankee-designed to trap the unsuspecting tourist who can't bear the sun bareheaded.

DIAMONDS

Dew diamonds sparkled in the grass but my sturdy number seven ignored the wetness. Dew drops balanced daintily on leaves and the endless variety of wildflowers that color the wild expanses of untilled ground in the small hollows that make it unfit for field crops. I wanted a closer look at the thistles, much smaller in bloom but equally as tall and rank as our Texas variety. Their lavender heads are now bursting into thistledown. I pulled several balls of fluff which made a sunburst, pinpointed by the tiny seeds that ensure ceaseless propagation as they float lazily through the air on unscheduled flights. Some landed on the heads of other flowers, reminding me of blonde wigs set askew as if to keep pace with the present fashions in hair styles.

Morning glories, large white ones, curled their restless vines about flowering weeds that I could not identify, except by color. They became original "arrangements" of vari-colored blooms. I thought of our Hondo florists, Dorothy, Mary and Phyllis and wondered if they'd approve of the unprofessional results.

CORNFLOWERS

Wild cornflowers in true cornflower blue were new to me. I had to risk uncertain steps through a tangle of weeds to pull two long stems which I brought home. The blooms are short lived and turn white within a few hours but I found that the tiny buds open daily as long as they last so I enjoyed them for at least three days in a slender yellow vase on the breakfast table.

THE CHAYNS

Wildroses, pink and white, were still open to inspection but they fraternize too cozily with poison ivy and oak that grow all over the place and I kept a respectful distance.

FENCES

I retraced the path along the fence line which is still maintained by what remains of an installation of rough hewn logs, set in posts with crudely cut rectangular openings. Wire fencing, now rusted and useless as boundary defense, is now deeply imbedded in the tree trunks. Collector "barbarians" would love this! I stopped to sample ripe blackberries (just one); stepped through thick beds of wild mint just to inhale its fragrance; checked the growth of wild violet plants now on vacation until next spring; and watched the bees as they buzzed through the clover enjoying their syrup-without-pancakes breakfast.

Along the creek, I stopped to sigh an inaudible sigh for its state of pollution. It is a narrow stream, full of small waterfalls and ripples that can be easily heard as they rush along for several miles through the valley as if to say "Maybe if we hurry we can get ahead of this stuff yet!" Two frogs, sunning on a submerged rock exchanged croaks: "Oh, yeah?" In midstream, a chain of foam tiatoms formed a bubble parade.

Spiders were busy about the business of web weaving. I have a wholesome respect for all spiders having once been sampled as a new diet by a particularly vicious and greedy member of the species.

On mounds of dried grass which had been stacked after frequent mowings, I found a discarded rag doll, left behind by some little mother who probably had so many doll children she didn't know what to do. I greeted her (not aloud, lest someone hear me and run for the net): "Good morning, Maude Muller on a summer's day!" I think she whispered "Sssh, look around you into the forest."

FOREST

I did and was rewarded by the sight of squirrels racing through the treetops, inquiring about other squirrel families and sizing up the nut prospects for fall. No pecans anywhere but lots of walnuts, beech and chestnuts, still in their green terry cloth overcoats.

Wild cherries hung in red clusters and I could tell from the seeds on the ground that the wild creatures were enjoying their daily treats. A sudden breeze shook some of the ripened fruit on my hat and added a bit of color. The rat-a-tat-tat startled me at first. My earlier acquaintances, several cottontails of assorted sizes, paid me no mind as they scampered over and under fallen logs. Overhead some bluejays and blackbirds flew about their own business.

At the foot of one tree, I investigated a bit of blue and found the first robin's egg I had ever seen, - a true robin's egg blue - which had housed a tiny tenant, now probably among those flying about above me.

BIRDS

A chatter of bird noises caught my attention. Several feet from my ringside seat, I saw a group of starlings engaged in a real gabfest. I decided they must have been delegates to a Women's Lib convention for all seemed to be trying to take the floor at once!

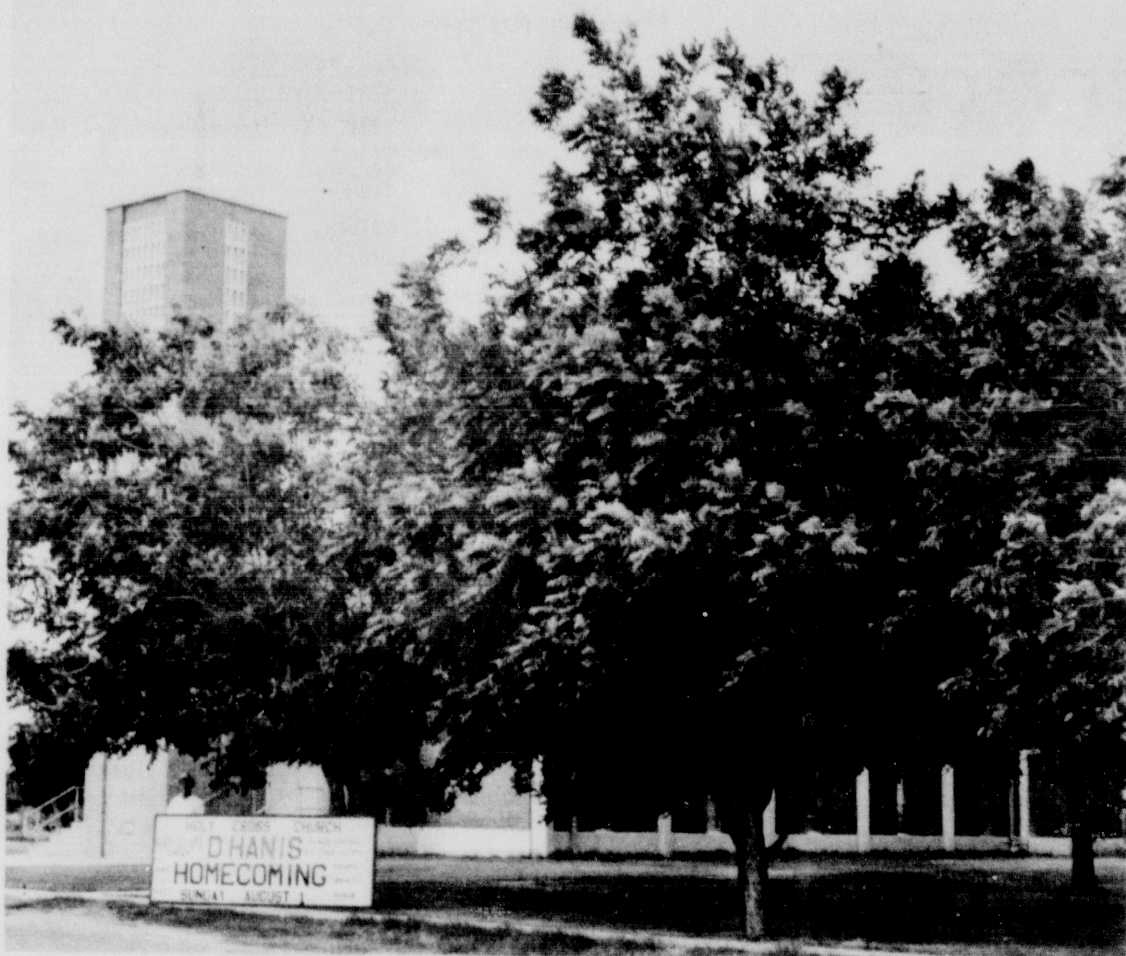

In another direction, some tiny robins were getting flying lessons from Mama and Papa Robin whose redbreasts seemed puffed in what I took to be a mixture of pride and aggravation. "Now, when we were YOUR age," said Papa but I didn't wait to see how the babies took that. Next year, they'll be telling their own offspring how it was. Even bird generations have gaps!

A few doves flew about noiselessly. Little "wrenny birds" twittered softly, flitting about too fast for me to see them very plainly. Pheasants in the adjoining cornfield were calling to one another. On one of our late evening drives over roads bordered by the tawny orange day lillies that grow with careless abandon along country lanes here, I saw eight pheasants--two royally plumed cocks and their girl friends dressed in more somber shades.

Grasses and forbs (which I learned are herbs other than grasses) are fast becoming sun-tanned pods, clusters, plumes, seeds, disks and leaves to be used in dried arrangements later. One neighbor has a very impressive assortment, all picked from the surrounding sources of supply, and which seems to have retained its beauty through three years of being admired. Garden Club members, completely equipped with scissors and boxes or baskets, scour the area in anticipation of finding the unusual that might merit a prize at flower show time.

TREES

And the trees! Their stately magnificence fills me with awe and wonder as I remember that "Out of the ground, made the Lord God to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food." I'm sure He even included our Texas mesquites (which have come to be considered an abomination to farmland). Within the forest and in Homecoming all set!

Read the sign closely and you'll see that the big annual Holy Cross Church Homecoming at D'Hanis is only a few days away. Eats, fun, games, and plenty of shade trees mark this event as "one you can't miss." The date is Sunday, August 1, so make it a point to be there. (Photo by Father Victor Schmidtzy) the meadow here trees grow higher than most, or so it seems to me as I crane and swivel my neck about trying to see what's inside and on top, unwilling to miss anything within my range of curiosity.

With the aid of a reference book, I have been able to identify various species of oak, maple, beech, spruce, cherry, walnut, elm and others although I'd probably be confused all over again if I didn't have recourse to the book. Many of the biggest trees have what I call "Siamese trunks" with bi- or trifurcated "auxiliary" trunks emerging several feet above the base to form immense crowns of shade.

Shade, sunlight and shadow add depth to the pictures I see within the forest. With so much to see, and so much of it completely new to me, I wish for at least a spark of artistic ability to try to capture some of it. The best I can do is to attempt word pictures and let folks guess what I'm trying to depict!

GOOD GUYS

No summer walk is complete without noting the insects that infest the day and night! Summer camp meetings are in full swing for Japanese beetles, leafhoppers, cicadas, aphids, spittlebugs and shieldbugs. These love the wildberries and sometimes, says the book, get eaten along with the berries. Now I tell me: Could there have been one on the berry I ate?

Gypsy moths were about and the local papers says they are doing a lot of damage to some crops just now. Along with the "bad guys" there are perhaps equally as many "good guys" in the insect world. I saw butterflies daintily sucking nectar from the more fragrant blooms. A yellow one on a lavender bloom made a post-Easter picture. Cabbage butterflies, with black spots on their snow-white wings, were far from home if they favor the cabbage patch - maybe they were out for dessert.

If I tried to tell about everything I saw, you'd weary of reading and editorial scissors would go into action. Special greetings to those of you who were brave enough to accompany me on my ramblings this far. I enjoyed having you along.

Invitation Extended

St. Paul Lutheran Church Vacation Bible School continues for its second week with a total enrollment of 76 students and 27 staff members.

Homecoming plans working in D'Hanis

Plans are being made in D'Hanis for the annual homecoming celebration staged by Holy Cross Church this year on Sunday, Aug. 1, in St. Dominic Hall, Rev. Victor G. Schmidtzy has announced.

Edward Lutz, local rancher and president of St. Joseph's Society, is general chairman of the celebration which annually attracts hundreds of former residents and visitors who come to enjoy the festive barbecue beef dinner and German-flavored trimmings.

The day will begin with masses at 7 a.m. and 10 a.m. in Holy Cross Church. Dinner will be served from 11:30 a.m. until 2 p.m.

Traditionally, the meal consists of barbecue, beans, potato salad, slaw, pickles, onions, tea, coffee and cake. For adults, children and plates to go the cost is $1.50.

There will be other attractions as well, including bingo, other games, refreshments and a dance at night in St. Dominic Hall.

Co-chairmen of the meal committee are Matt Koch and Chris Finger. They plan to put on the fire between 2,500 and 3,000 pounds of beef for this celebration which is expected to draw another record crowd.

This week

That's all she wrote

by Edna McDade

Home is the wanderer -- and glad to be here. I can truthfully say "There's no place like home" but it must include two homes for me as I am often privileged to share whatever address John's duties choose for him. And, being the gregarious individual that I am, I seem to put new roots down wherever I go.

It is taking a bit of adjusting to our special hot-test-brand-going of summer weather, after the many delightfully cool weeks in Lancaster. But, remembering the years of no air-conditioning, I remind myself that the heat is not bad at all.

Local temperatures added to the "heart-warming" experience of being greeted so graciously by those who had noted my absence. A group of my very young friends had made and hung a huge Welcome Home banner. It spanned the entrance to my carport where I read it with genuine appreciation.

Next day, the same group surprised me again with a reception, in my home, in real party style complete with refreshments, favors of Hondo owls made of pine cones, and a delightful visit all-around. My hostesses were CATHERINE HELEN COX, JUDY and JOY HEILIGMAN, DOROTHY SUE JONES, KAY MARTIN, PAMELA and DIANNA PITRE and CINDY TSCHIRHART, all escorted by CHARLES BALZEN who kept the Women's Lib movement from getting completely out of hand.

These active future citizens helped immeasurably with the piggy bank project for Museum Day. Two of the girls were out of town, APRIL ALEXANDER has moved to SA and we miss her. BELINDA PITRE was vacationing in the Hill Country.

A future song and dance man greeted me when I entered the post office to see how the circular mail was adjusting to increased postage. (It is still going strong). Happy as a lark about everything in general was JOHNNIE (Junior) TAYLOR, 4-year old son of Mrs. LINDA GRANT SPENCER and the late John Taylor.

Johnnie was escorting his grandmother, Mrs. BERNICE GRANT, who said "He loves to sing". The world can use lots of such happy singers.

At Super Sav, 2-year old DAVID, son of RAMIRO and SOPHIE MIRANDA, was inspecting the shelf displays as he enjoyed a bottle of refreshment. He was accompanied by his mother who told me that he was the oldest of their trio of small folk. The others are one-year old twins, DORA and DANIEL.

Never a dull moment in that home!

My little friend CINDY, big sister in the JOHN and LINDA BATOT family, and I meet frequently in our rounds about town. Monday she was with her daddy and her two younger brothers, JOHN Jr. (Bubba) and JEAN MARTIN BATOT, who turned two on July 18.

Jean is named for his great-grandfather who was among the early day pioneers who came to Medina County from Germany.

The elder Batot would be pleased to have his name so perpetuated. Jean had had a REAL birthday party and tried to tell me about it, especially about the BIG cake. Guests for the occasion were the J. C. BIRYs and their children of D'Hanis.

Last week, Mrs. E. W. (Ethel) FELDTMAN and her 8-year old fourth-grader daughter, DENISE, stopped by the ANVIL HERALD to place an ad. When they told me they were en route to Sabinal to "rob the bees", this sounded like a sweet item so I made a note: Every two months or so, they go to the C. A. PEPPER ranch (Registered Angora goats and vegetables) where the families gather (?) the honey that finds a ready market.

Mrs. Pepper is E. W. Feldtman's sister so "it's all in the family". One can meet the nicest folks in the AH office!

Maybe the "Walk" story which failed to make last week's paper will appear somewhere in this issue.

I can't tell you how I miss those daily walks! I can walk here, of course, but the hard asphalt makes the going harder than the soft carpet of grass my vacation site offered. Easier, in fact, on soles and soul!

ARCHITECTS' DRIVE—This symbol is the identifying mark supporting the statewide public education campaign on environmental opportunities announced by the Texas
Society of Architects. TSA President Tom Bullock, Houston, said his group intends to encourage the participation of all Texans in a campaign to motivate active concern for the environment. This symbol will remind Texans to make it a habit to ask this question: "Am I handling Texas with care?"

President's plane repaired in Hondo

Gary Aircraft Corporation marked another "first" last week when this plane belonging to the fleet of planes used by the President of Mexico was "shipped" home. Art Stewart, Gary owner, said this was the first plane from Mexico to be repaired in the Hondo shops of his company. "But we hope it isn't the last," he added. "We completely overhauled and painted this aircraft," Stewart explained. The plane took off from Hondo for Mexico on July 15.

Owls told physical date

Despite its intensity the heat of summer cannot hold back the onrush of football fever as the Big Blue of Hondo High School outline preparations for the 1971 season.

Head Coach Nelson Bippert has notified all the 167 aspiring footballers of the important dates leading up to the beginning of practice.

On August 11 the players will report to the fieldhouse to be issued shoes.

Then on August 13 they will report to the gymnasium at 7:30 p.m. to take physicals and be fitted for mouth pieces.

And then comes August 16 and the beginning of workouts. Coach Bippert says the 167 boys, which is a greater number than showed last year, will begin 2-a-day workouts on August 16, the morning session at 8:30 a.m. and the evening session at 6 p.m.

"We will continue two workouts a day until school starts," Coach Bippert said.

Hurry makes honor roll

Approximately 650 students at the University of Texas have been named to the spring semester honor roll for the College of business administration.

Harold Andrew Hurry, Route 1, Natalia, was on the list.

To qualify for the list, a student must have carried 12 or more semester hours of graded work, passing all courses. He must have completed at least three hours of A work above a B average in all courses taken.

WE NEED A HOME

BY PATRICIA LAWRENCE,
Regional Adoption Supervisor,
Texas Department of Public Welfare

(This is the first in a series of eight articles covering answers to questions about adoption and foster home care.)

QUESTION:
What is the difference between foster care and adoption?
ANSWER:

Foster care is substitute care for children whose natural parents are temporarily unable to properly meet their needs.

Adoption is the permanent and legal step to make the child a regular member of the family, thereby taking overall responsibility for his future development.

The Texas State Department of Public Welfare in this region needs adoptive and foster homes for school-age Mexican-American and Black children. For further information, call 426-3949 in Hondo.

H.E. BUTT SR.

CHARLES C. BUTT

Charles C. Butt now president of H.E. Butt Grocery Company

H. E. Butt Grocery Company has announced the election of Charles C. Butt to the office of President. H. E. B. serves 60 Texas communities with 125 stores and 6,000 employees. H. E. Butt, Sr., continues as chairman of the board of the Texas supermarket chain which he has built and headed during the past 50 years.

In assuming his new duties, Charles C. Butt stated: "Our company's most important assets are the goodwill of our customers and the loyalty and enthusiasm of our personnel. We will make every effort to merit both and continue our pattern of growth."

Charles C. Butt, 33, is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania where he received his Bachelor of Science in Economics from the Wharton School of Finance in 1959. He has been involved in management activities of the company since that time. He maintains offices in San Antonio and Corpus Christi.

His current civic and business activities include membership on the board of directors of the National Bank of Commerce of San Antonio, the Texas Research League and the KLRN Educational Television. He is on the board of trustees of the San Antonio Medical Foundation and a member of the Board of Governors of the Southwest Foundation for Research and Education. He is also on the board of governors of The Argyle, a member of St. Andrews Presbyterian Church and a member of the Order of the Alamo.

He was president of the State supermarket group, Texas Merchants Association, in 1970 and continues as legislative chairman. He is a former director of the San Antonio United Fund and Chamber of Commerce.

He is vice-chairman of the South Texas Educational Broadcasting Council, a group interested in bringing educational television from the University of Texas to the Corpus Christi area. He is also a trustee of the Corpus Christi Art Foundation and a member of the Corpus Christi Yacht Club. An enthusiastic sailor, his yawl, ENCANTADA, won the Corpus Christi to Galveston race in the Gulf in 1965.

The widespread Texas Grocery Chain began in 1905 when Mrs. Charles C. Butt (grandmother of the new president) started a small family grocery store in Kerrville in the central Texas Hill Country. Her young son, Howard (H. E. Butt, Sr.) worked in the store and delivered groceries. When he returned from the service after World War I, he took over the family business and soon converted it into cash and carry. H. E. Butt moved to the Rio Grande Valley in 1928, starting the first major expansion of the company. Store expansions throughout the valley and south Texas continued during the depression years and the company rapidly grew into one of the State's pioneer supermarket chains.

Company headquarters were moved to Corpus Christi from Harlingen in 1939 as the company's growth continued along the coastal bend and then into Austin, San Antonio, Waco and surrounding communities.

Under Butt's direction, H. E. B. became active in food manufacturing and for many years operated the only pineapple canning plant in the continental United States as part of the Harlingen Canning Company. Foreseeing the popularity of trading stamps in 1956, H. E. B. organized and operates as a subsidiary the Texas Gold Stamp Company.

H. E. Butt is a 33rd degree Mason and has been active in philanthropic activities in south and central Texas. He is a former director of the National Association of Food Chains and past president of The Texas Merchants Association. He has had business investments in various fields including banking, real estate development, oil and retailing. In 1946 he organized the First State Bank of Corpus Christi. He served on the boards of directors of the National Bank of Commerce of San Antonio and The Texas Research League. He is a member of Parkdale Baptist Church.

Mrs. H. E. Butt, the former Mary Elizabeth Holdsworth, is noted for many activities in educational, welfare and health organizations in South Texas and throughout the State and was honored as Mrs. South Texas in 1954. She has been a member of the governing board of State Hospitals for many years and is currently particularly interested in the transition from institutional mental health care to the community approach.

Mr. and Mrs. Butt have three children: Howard E. Butt, Jr., Eleanor and Charles. Howard E. Butt, Jr. serves as vice-chairman of the board of H. E. Butt Grocery Company and a trustee of the Employee Profit Sharing Trust. He is widely known as a lay religious leader throughout the southern and western areas of the United States. He is president of Christian Men, Inc. and Lifty Lodge, Inc. Howard E. Butt III, one of his three children and State Boys Singles Tennis Champion in 1970, is a student at Trinity University in San Antonio.

Mrs. William H. (Eleanor) Crook is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Butt. Crook, who is currently engaged in business in Dallas, has held several government positions including those of U.S. Ambassador to Australia, National Director of the Vista Program, and Regional Director of the Office of Economic Opportunity. Mr. and Mrs. Crook and their three children live in San Marcos.

Mr. and Mrs. Butt established the H. E. Butt Foundation in 1933. It has made contributions to educational, religious and health programs of many kinds. It operates the H. E. Butt Foundation Camp near Leakey which is open to youth, church, scout and other groups. Almost 14,000 persons use the 2,000-acre facility each year.

Officers of H. E. Butt Grocery Company include: Duane Peters, executive vice-president and general manager of store operations and merchandising; M. B. Reasoner, senior vice-president; and vice-presidents W. F. McCroskey, Virgil Sturkie, E. W. Speed, E. H. Thompson and M. H. Martin. Joe L. Brown is president of the H. E. Butt Store Property Companies, chairman of the board of the Texas Gold Stamp Company and executive vice-president of H. E. Butt Grocery Company. Fred Williams is president of Texas Gold Stamp Company.

H. E. B. headquarters and manufacturing facilities are in Corpus Christi. Principal distribution facilities are in San Antonio. Supervisory offices are in Waco, Austin, San Antonio, Victoria, Corpus Christi and Harlingen.

Happy Birthday!
